

Victoria Asaman is the CEO and founder of Torine Coaching

Victoria Asaman is the CEO and founder of Torine Coaching. She helps provide solutions to issues that keep individuals and organizational leaders awake at night. Victoria uses a well proven coaching methodology - The Core Energy Leadership Coaching and Assessment - to assist leaders who want to drive innovation, inspire and retain employees. Victoria believes a Culture of Engagement is the Energy that fuels Innovation and Growth resulting in energized performance and productivity.

Victoria is a bilingual (English and French) Certified Professional Coach (CPC) and an Energy Leadership Index Master Practitioner. She holds an MSc degree in Training and Human Resource Management from the University of Leicester. She is an associate of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (ACIPD), a member of the International Coach Federation (ICF) and has a Coach Centric Leadership Engagement program partnership with iPEC. She is a part-time lecturer at the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology.

She is a marriage counselor and also a motivational speaker. Victoria had spent 32 years of her career at the African Development Bank. She specialized in SAPHR ERP systems, organizational development and corporate training.

Victoria likes to make a difference in others. She has great-people skills and loves to help people navigate through challenges of work, life and social living. Her personal experience led her become a Corporate/Executive Coach. She is an avid reader.