

Conference | 26th - 27th February 2015

Monorvi Asampong , CEO, Centre Executive Training & Development

Mono Asampong is an education consultant with a unique focus on providing advisory services to professionals, executives and public sector organizations on successfully aligning educational and professional development with corporate and organizational goals. Her objective and passion is to ensure the responsiveness of knowledge, expertise and insight with commercial and societal needs.

Over the past three years, Mono has been working with the Government of Ghana to develop the capacity of Ghanaians to fully participate in the economic opportunities presented in the oil and gas sector through a series of academic and executive seminars.

With over a decade of professional experience, Mono demonstrates tremendous professionalism, business foresight and leadership qualities.

Presentation

Title: Achieving Success Through Your People